Government departments not open to women for appointment.

502. Mr. K. T. Mathew—Will the Government be pleased to state whether all Government departments are not open for women to hold appointment and, if not, whether a list of those departments which are not open to them be placed on the table ?

Mr. A. K. Vengu Ayyar.—At present women are entertained only in the Medical and Education Departments.

Mr. K. T. Mathew.—Are all other departments closed to women ?

President.—The thing is the question was not considered, viz., which department should admit and which should not. As a matter of fact, we find the Medical and Educational Departments admitting women.

Mr. K. T. Mathew.—It is for the consideration of, that I submitted the question. My object is not gained by this answer.

President.—Your request to consider the matter is noted.

Supply of Government publications.

503. Mr. M. K. Raman.—Will the Government be pleased to answer the following:—

(a) do the Government supply Cochin Government Gazette and other Government publications free of cost to the newspapers outside Cochin State ; if so, will the Government be pleased to name those newspapers ;

(b) are the same publications supplied to any papers in the State ; if so, which are they ;

(c) have the Government kept any statistics to show the amount of revenue obtained by our Government out of the publications of newspapers in Cochin State and of those outside the State ; will the Government be pleased to inform whether they have any objection to supply all the newspapers conducted in the State ?

Mr. A. K. Vengu Ayyar.—(a) Yes. Vide the list appended. (Vide Appenaix III.)

(b) Yes. Vide the list appended (VidcAppendix IV.)

c) The provisions of Regulation VII of 1097 or the rules thereunder do not contemplate any revenue except in the matter of inspection of declarations and of grant of copies thereof. The fees to be so collected are in the shape of adhesive labels. No revenue has been realised as yet.

The latter portion of the question is unintelligible.

Mr. M. K. Raman.—Are there any accounts to show the amount collected by the Government from the inspection of declaration and the grant of copies ?

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly

Mr. A. K. Vengu Ayyar.—I want notice.

Mr. M. K. Raman.—Are there any accounts to show what amount was collected by the sale of adhesive labels?

Mr. A. K. Vengu Ayyar.—I want notice.

Mr. M. K. Raman.—The latter portion of the answer is not intelligible.

President.—We have got certain rules as to which newspapers are entitled to get Government publications, and which are not They must have 3 years' standing and a circulation of 500 copies.

Mr. M. K. Raman.—Will the Government undertake to supply to all the newspapers in the State all the Government publications?

Mr. A. K. Vengu Ayyar.—If they comply with the rules in force, they will be given.

Mr. M. K. Raman.—My question is whether they can supply to them all the Government publications, irrespective of their standing or their circulation.

President.—We have to go by the rules in force. You want there should not be any such rules in regard to the newspapers in the State, and that they must be supplied, whether the papers are started yesterday or a few months back.

Mr. M. K. Raman.—My question is whether the Government have any objection?

President.—These are irrelevant points, and the Government cannot give an answer off hand.

Mr. M. K. Raman.—In view of the fact that we do not derive any income from the newspapers outside, and that our newspapers are purchasing a number of our stamps, will the Government consider the matter?

President.—Your request to consider the matter is noted.

The proposals of the Cranganur Road Committee.

504. Mr. N. Padmanabha Menon.—(1) Will the Government be pleased to state whether the attention of the Government has been drawn to the proposals of the Cranganur Road Committee to connect the mainland of Cranganur with Mukundapuram Taluk by means of a bridge connection;

(2) if so, will the Government be pleased to state whether the proposal has met with their approval?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon. (1) Yes.

(2) An alternative proposal of connecting Cranganur by bridging up the Connolly canal is being considered. The feasibility of this scheme has also to be considered before a decision is arrived at.
